

On the fence?

Here's a little push.

In 2017, we started with 92 homes. Just a few short years later, only 3 homes remain!

Wonderful neighborhoods tend to sell quickly, after all.

The good news: what's left is one of each of our award-winning village home styles.

So, if The Lanterns at Warren Woods is a place you'd like to call home, the time to act is quite literally right now.
